

Help Flood Victims in Sindh (Pakistan)

Appeal for Donations

Hands that help are holier than the lips that pray

- Sixteen of the 23 districts in Sindh affected by flooding
- Over 4 million acres of land underwater, 1.7 million acres of standing crops destroyed and between 8,000 and 100,000 cattle killed or greatly at risk
- More than 5 million people displaced
- 144,000 people relocated to 1,800 relief camps in Sindh
- The Pakistani government reports 126 deaths
- Clean water supplies contaminated
- Roughly 120,000 pregnant women directly affected
- Just under 700,000 homes damaged or destroyed
- Several towns completely swept away
- Infrastructure completely destroyed

On behalf of a Sindhi Association of North America, we appeal you to send your donations.

Your donations:

- Will be disbursed to NGOs working in the area for rehabilitation projects
- 100% of the donations will be given to affected people directly
- Will be given to nondenominational NGOs
